

Judith Simser, O.Ont., B.Ed., Dip Ed. Deaf, LSLS Cert AVT

Judith Simser, O.Ont., B.Ed., Dip Ed. Deaf, LSLS Cert AVT, is an internationally acclaimed speaker and consultant on the education of children with hearing impairment. Mrs. Simser, formerly of the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario in Ottawa, Canada, lived in Taiwan for six years, where she trained therapists and established two auditory-verbal centers. In Singapore she developed the Listen and Talk A-V program in the Singapore General Hospital Cochlear Implant Centre.

Awards to the profession include the Canadian Commemorative Medal, The Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf International Teacher of the Year Award, the prestigious Order of Ontario and recently recognized as an Alexander Graham Bell Global Ambassador. Simser has contributed to many publications. She is the parent of a son who is profoundly deaf who has earned an MBA and is a practicing lawyer.